

Scouse Sonnet - Number 2 - 1940's Nostalgia Childrens Favourite Comics

Author & Copyright - John McEwan - The Liver Bard

I read my favourite Weekly Comics, while browsing in our Paper Shop.
But I usually bought 'The Eagle', because it was the easiest one to Swap.
'Dan Dare', the Front Page Hero, depicted Science Fiction, at its very Best.
Each Episode in brilliant coloured Artwork, increased absorbing interest.
Astronauts were travelling round in Space, many years before their time.
Explained in the finest Graphic Detail, each Chapter, thrilling and sublime.
We also loved 'The Dandy' and 'The Beano', Jimmy and his 'Magic Patch'.
Hungry Horace, Pansy Potter, Lord Snooty's Gang, with Snitch and Snatch.
Minnie The Minx and Keyhole Kate, Roger the Dodger, was so 'Work-Shy'.
Beryl The Peril, Korky The Cat, while big Desperate Dan loved his Cow Pie.
'The Adventure', 'Valiant' and 'Radio Fun', 'The Tiger' and 'The Topper'.
'The Knock-Out', 'Beezer' and 'Wizard', 'The Rover' and 'The Hotspur'.
Tales of 'Gorgeous Gussie Moran', 'Alf Tupper' and 'Strang the Terrible'.
At the Cost of just a 'Threepenny Joey', such Joy and Value was Incredible.
